

31.08.2012.

Today in port of Kotor is the flagship Kristina Katarina. Vessel is length 128,7 , BRT 12 907 t and sails under the flag of Finnish. On board are 317 passengers and 91 crew members. Kristina Katarina departing at 7 p.m. to Split, Croatia.

The new flagship of Kristina Cruises the m/s Kristina Katarina offers intimate, homely and at the same time high quality cruises in Finnish way. The m/s Kristina Katarina has facilities for about 400 cruise guests and cabins to meet different tastes and needs, beginning from a 9m² inside cabin to a 30m² high standard ocean view cabin. After the renovations in spring and summer 2010 the ship has the total of 193 cabins and 380 lower beds.

The ship has three dining restaurants: the traditional buffet restaurant, à la carte restaurant serving international classics on the menu and the bistro, where you can drop in for eg. delicious steaks, pizzas and salads. There also are a café near the pool deck, bars and the main restaurant, which is used for evening programs as well as giving lectures and introducing destinations. Brand new saunas built on deck 8 and the pool deck with its three pools is expected to appeal to elder as well as younger cruise guests. The ship has also a shop, where guests may buy gifts and items they might need during the cruise. Cruise guests may treat themselves to a massage or a visit to the hairdresser's, or get fit in the ship's gym.